

Rimon at Hillel's Kitchen

Are you ready for a new and inspired culinary experience at Tulane?! We are thrilled to announce the opening of Rimon, Tulane Hillel's new restaurant coming this summer!

Local superstar and culinary innovator, Chef Dan Esses of Three Muses, will be opening his new restaurant, Rimon at Hillel. Chef Dan will be serving up delicious, seasonal, farm-to-table, healthy and Kosher food like you've never had before.

Chef Dan Esses achieved notoriety through his popular Three Muses restaurants in New Orleans. He will now bring all of his culinary talents to Tulane and Hillel, and leverage his vast national and international training in vegetarian, vegan, French, Korean, Jewish and Israeli cuisine.

We could not be more excited to welcome Rimon and Chef Dan as the latest most awesome addition to Hillel and Tulane's campus. Stay tuned for more updates and exciting Rimon news over this summer!

Any questions regarding the kashrut of Rimon, should be directed to Rabbi Yonah at: yonah@tulane.edu.

TULANE HILLEL
INNOVATING JEWISH COMMUNITY

Tulane Hillel is a non-profit community center that fosters leadership and community engagement. A leader in entrepreneurial-based programming, Tulane Hillel serves as an incubator and platform for college students to engage in the community, focusing on key issues that need to be addressed.

The Tulane Hillel team is a collection of voices, backgrounds, Hebrew School experiences, ambitions and identities. It is important that those who spend their time creating Jewish community are reflective of the broad and diverse demographic that comprise our co-creators.
